

I strongly oppose the FCC's plan to change internet service provision from a Title II common carrier service to a Title 1 information service. Freedom of speech is a requirement for our democracy and to maintain freedom of speech, we must maintain net neutrality.